ASIC Regulatory Portal Guide

21 July 2020

1 min. read

agribusiness and food / banking and financial / government / health and aged care / leisure sport and entertainment / private enterprise / real estate / resources energy and projects / retail / startups / technology media and communication / corporate advisory and governance

The method for submitting applications for relief and various fundraising and corporate finance documents with the Australian Securities and Investments Commission (ASIC) is changing.

From 27 July 2020, applications and documents to support specific transactions will need to be submitted through the ASIC Regulatory Portal (ARP).

If you require HopgoodGanim Lawyers to assist you with these types of transactions, you will need to register your own account on the portal via the registration page. Once registered, you will need to invite HopgoodGanim to connect to your entities for us to be able to lodge documents on your behalf through this portal.

For assistance with completing the above steps, you can access the ARP user guides here or contact our Corporate Advisory team directly or via our contact us form.

21 July 2020

agribusiness and food / banking and financial / government / health and aged care / leisure sport and entertainment / private enterprise / real estate / resources energy and projects / retail / startups / technology media and communication / corporate advisory and governance Previous article Next article