HopgoodGanim Lawyers is proud to have three listings in the 2022 World Trademark Review 1000.

Our Intellectual Property team has a Bronze ranking in Prosecution and Strategy, with Partner Hayden Delaney picking up two individual rankings: Prosecution and Strategy (Silver) and Transactions (Recommended).

Our Intellectual Property team have been ranked as a top IP Prosecution and Strategy firm by World Trademark Review since 2018.

WTR 1000 commented:

Brisbane-based HopgoodGanim Lawyers offers a one-of-its-kind IP service – it is one of the few Australian full-service practices with both in-house lawyers and patent attorneys. Clientele are particularly satisfied with its dynamic yet economic approach to its pricing solution. Equipped with a “wealth of experience in a variety of industries as well as specialist technical qualifications”, its IP department is highly qualified to handle complex IP matters. Despite not being the biggest in terms of size, the team consistently provides “exemplary, professional yet very personalised” advice. On the deck is practice head Hayden Delaney, whose expertise and advice are sought after among entities in the technology, media and telecommunications (TMT) sector. He manages all of Nvidia’s trademarks in Australia, including the marks of its market-leading GeForce and Tegra products.

The WTR 1000 research directory, which focuses exclusively on trademark practices and practitioners, has firmly established itself as the definitive ‘go-to’ resource for those seeking world-class legal trademark expertise.

As with previous editions, to arrive at the 2022 rankings, World Trademark Review undertook an exhaustive qualitative research project to identify the firms and individuals that are deemed outstanding in this critical area of practice.

Please join us in congratulating Hayden and our Intellectual Property team.
