HopgoodGanim has welcomed two new lawyers to its Brisbane office.

Joining the firm's Taxation team as an associate is Dominic Gilbert.

Prior to joining HopgoodGanim, Dominic held a senior position in the Tax Counsel Network at the Australian Taxation Office (ATO).

With over 13 years' taxation experience gained in technical and legal areas within the ATO and within a Chartered Accounting firm, Dominic advises on a wide range of taxation and tax administration matters.

As Tax Counsel in the ATO, Dominic provided advice on complex and strategically important taxation law and administration issues. He has advised on matters concerning private enterprises, high-wealth individuals and multinational enterprises.

Dominic also has significant expertise in strategic tax dispute management and resolution plus he has been involved in leading taxation cases with both private and multinational enterprises in the Administrative Appeals Tribunal (AAT), Federal Court and the High Court.

Dominic is looking forward to working with Taxation Partner, Michael Patane in providing tax advice to the firm's clients.

Joining the firm's large Family Law team as a lawyer is Damon Hatchett.

Damon brings more than three years of family law experience to the team.

His experience includes dealing with property matters, parenting matters, divorce, and child protection.
