HopgoodGanim Lawyers welcomes Linda Cannings as a Senior Associate and Rina Biswas as an Associate to the Family and Relationship Law team in Brisbane.

Linda comes to HopgoodGanim with over 17 years' experience practising solely in family and relationship law across New South Wales and Queensland. Linda is a trained Collaborative Law professional and an Accredited Family Law Specialist.

She has a wealth of experience in complex parenting arrangements, child support arrangements and disputes, spousal maintenance and property applications and settlements. Linda has also worked on matters involving high-net worth individuals, which has provided her with knowledge of other complementary areas of law including taxation, corporate/trust restructuring, self-managed superannuation and estate planning.

Rina has specialised in family law since 2014 and has particular interest in complex property matters involving high-net worth clients. She has extensive experience with complex financial/property matters, parenting matters, child support, surrogacy, divorce and financial agreements. Rina has qualifications in Laws and Arts (Psychology) from the University of Queensland.

Linda and Rina join a team that is highly responsive to the varying needs of families in an ever-changing world. Our team have been and continue to be an integral and trusted voice for families.

Please join us in welcoming Senior Associate, Linda Cannings and Associate, Rina Biswas to our Family and Relationship Law practice.
