HopgoodGanim Lawyers is pleased to announce the appointment of a new Chief Operating Officer (COO) at a milestone time in the firm's history.

Chris Vedelago has joined the firm as COO and brings a significant track record in financial and operational leadership, having worked in senior finance roles to deliver transformational practice management projects across Australia and Asia for over a decade.

Prior to commencing with HopgoodGanim, Chris was the CFO of Colin Biggers & Paisley, based in Brisbane, and he previously spent several years in financial leadership positions with Herbert Smith Freehills and Allen & Overy both in Australia and Asia.

"We feel incredibly lucky to have secured Chris to take on this important role to lead the operational aspects of our firm," said Managing Partner, Luke Mountford.

"Chris's track record is exemplary. He will be an asset to HopgoodGanim as we embark on our next phase of growth and maturity and approach our 50th year in business and 10th year operating in Western Australia."
