HopgoodGanim is excited to announce five promotions across the firm.

Congratulations to Justin McNally on his promotion to Partner. Justin's appointment brings the firm's partnership count to 42 in 2019.

Justin McNally

Justin is a property law expert. He advises clients on a full-range of legal issues associated with property law. His practice covers the sale and acquisition of commercial property, commercial and retail leasing and property development.

He offers broad transactional experience, having acted in the sale and purchase of CBD office buildings, shopping centres, industrial & agricultural properties, transport & infrastructure assets, and development sites.

He has gained international experience working for leading global law firms in both the United Kingdom and Australia and also acting for multi-national and foreign listed clients.

These promotions come at the end of a memorable 2018 for the firm with record promotions in July and being awarded most-attractive Queensland firm by Lawyers Weekly in September.

Below is a complete list of promotions for the firm.
